

Ed Scott

BRISTOL, ENGLAND

AGE
26

HEIGHT
170 cm / 5'7"

LOCATION
Bristol, England

DISCIPLINES
Parkour / Freerunning

A professional parkour athlete and performer from Bristol, England, with over a decade of experience. Transitioning from competitive gymnastics into world-class freerunning, Ed has become a dominant figure in the global parkour scene, known for his strength, precision, and stage presence.

MOVEMENT STYLE

Ed Scott's movement is marked by raw power, elite body control, and technical mastery. Drawing on his gymnastics foundation, he brings explosive strength and precision to each jump, vault, and acrobatic sequence. His fluid style and consistent innovation make him one of the most respected and widely recognized figures in the sport.

EXPERIENCE

10+ years as a professional parkour athlete Former competitive gymnast with ten years of training International parkour competitor and live show performer Britain's Got Talent Semi-Finalist with The Parkour Collective Performs regularly with The Parkour Collective in live shows Featured in films and television, including Ninja Warrior UK and Catch (German TV)

PROFESSIONAL CREDITS

Winner of multiple world titles, including Red Bull competitions Sponsored athlete with the global parkour team Storm Freerun Featured in high-profile parkour events worldwide, including Red Bull Art of Motion Over 970,000 followers across Instagram, TikTok, and YouTube

